A List of Information Either Published or Made Available Free of Charge

All information uploaded on the Police Force Internet Homepage is available free of charge to the general public. Other published Police-related information is also available via open source such as leaflets, standard forms, Police Fact Sheet, annual report and Government statistics.

Other than records / information made available free of charge to the general public, those reproduced at the request of the applicant under the Code would be charged at the prevailing rate as stipulated in the Government Accounting Circular.